As a Proof of the flourishing State of the Society, we have the Pleasure to acquaint the Public, that nine new Members were admitted the same Day, and many more Applications for Admission are intended to be made: And that it is not improbable a COLLEGE may arise out of this excellent Institution, if properly assisted by the Legislature, and the usual other Means.

...would be needleſs to mention here thoſe reaſons (whether ...icy or principle) which have hitherto prevented an inſtitu- ...ſo honourable to the country where it ſubſiſts, from ob- ... a provincial ſupport. The time is probably not very ..., when it may be otherwiſe; but, in the mean while, ...ing carried on for about twelve years, at the expence ... more than Seven thouſand pounds ſterling, raiſed by * pri- vate means within the province, and near Three thouſand pounds ſterling value, granted in lands and money by the honourable Proprietors, THOMAS and RICHARD PENN Eſquires; the whole undertaking muſt at laſt have ſunk, if His MAJESTY, in his great goodneſs, had not (together with a princely benefaction) granted a royal brief, by means of which, through the generoſity of the Engliſh nation, upwards of SIX THOUHSAND pounds ſterling where raiſed and added to our almoſt exhauſted capital.

ALTHOUGH this capital hath ſince been augmented by ſome legacies, yet the yearly revenue of the college, joined to the money ariſing from the † tuition of the youth, falls near TWO HUNDRED pounds ſhort of the yearly expence; and therefore to ſave our ſtock from being again gradually ex- hauſted, and with the hopes of placing it at laſt upon a per- manent footing, one effort more became neceſſary, in which we could only turn our eyes to the friends of learning and mankind, in the neighbouring Colonies.

I TRUST, then, that our application will not not be in vain to the inhabitants of this Province a people bleſt in general with plentiful fortunes, and what is more, with hearts ſo truly liberal and humane, that I have been well aſſured, wherever there is a propriety in giving, it is their delight to give, and to manifeſt their benevolence and public ſpirit. From what has been ſaid, I hope, the deſign for which their aſſiſtance is now ſolicited, will appear both proper and public-ſpirited. It is not for an obſcure ſeminary, it is not for a narrow or partial one that aid is requeſted; but, I can ſay it without oſtentation, for a ſeminary actually ſhining as one of the chief lights of this new world; unexampled in its catholiciſm ‡ and placed in a city having frequent and eaſy communication with this and the other Colonies. Thoſe, therefore, who love to do good, and to lay foundations for poſterity, will here find a proper object. The cauſe is a common one, and I know but this argument that requires notice, namley, that an inſtitution of the like kind is intended and much wanted in this province.

I WISH ſucceſs to whatever may be deſigned of this nature here; which I hope may be forwarded, not retarded, by what is ſaid in this paper. If my experience in matters of education in perfecting the propoſed plan, could be rendered ſerviceable, it would give me real pleaſure, during my ſtay in this place; and I profeſs myſelf ſo much a friend to the general intereſt of Literature, that if my preſent application could in the leaſt inter- fere with that intereſt here, it ſhould never be urged fur- ther.

THE univerſities of Great-Britan, nay every great town, and almoſt every pariſh there, had the intereſt of learning to ſup- port among themſelves, and their own ſchools to provide for; yet all of them chearfully contributed towards the ſupport of the ſame cauſe among their American brethren, when our public collection was made there. In like manner, the mite that may now be contributed by benevolent perſons in this province towards a neighbouring ſeminary, will not be felt or miſſed, when the like inſtitution comes to be eſtabliſhed among themſelves; more eſpecially as the general weight of that undertaking will be happily borne here, as it ought to be, by public and not private expence. In the mean while, whatever may be thus generouſly given towards the keeping a neighbouring light burning, will not be wholly loſt, ſince the rays of that light may extend back hither, in the benefit which it is hoped many of the youth may derive, by an eaſy and cheap opportunity of a liberal education in a place not very diſtant, till the like opportunity can be had in the place of their Nativity.

ALL I have to add, is a perfect aſſurance that every con- tribution ſhall be faithfully accounted for, and the names of the Contributors recorded among the Benefactors of the inſtitution, with gratitude, to the lateſt times.

WILLIAM SMITH.

* Part of the money was raiſed by lotteries, which were af- terwards prohibited by law.
